

Luck

Ketu

Ketu is in House 9

- Ketu is exalted in this House.
- This native is obedient and lucky, this increases their wealth as well.
- The luck of this individual is dependent on their male child.
- The individual earns money through their own hard work.
- It doesn't let the individual have the warmth and support of their father. Either the native stays far away from their father or their father passes away at a young age.
- Detaches from their teacher as well.
- Makes the individual very religious and can attain high spiritual powers.
- Questions a lot about the traditional customs and the religions.
- The native's first born will be a boy.
- The native will spend a major chunk of their life in a foreign land.
- Ketu here along with auspicious placement in the II House will give excellent results to the native.
- If Moon is in a good placement along with this Ketu, then the native will be very helpful to the mother's family.
- If Ketu is malefic in IX House, the native will suffer from back pain, urinary problems, issues with legs and the native's sons will die one after the other.
- If Moon or Mars is placed in III House along with this Ketu, the native's male child will face problems.

Remedies

- Keep a black dog at home.
- Keep rectangular bricks of gold at home. The more gold at home, the more prosperity.
- Wear gold earrings.
- Make it a point to respect elders, especially father-in-law.